

Planning and Collaborating Toward Inclusion Between Schools and Community-Based State Preschool Programs

Join CalECSE for a no-cost virtual professional learning session focused on strengthening collaboration between Local Educational Agencies (LEAs) and community-based California State Preschool Programs (CSPPs) to support inclusive opportunities for young children with disabilities. This session will explore key requirements related to eligibility, Least Restrictive Environment (LRE), and Free Appropriate Public Education (FAPE), while highlighting common licensing barriers and practical strategies for building effective interagency partnerships that improve outcomes for children and families across early learning settings.

Who Should Attend

- ✓ Special Education Directors and LEA District Office Staff
- ✓ Preschool Program Specialists
- ✓ Special Education Local Plan Area (SEPLA) Administrators
- ✓ Community-based preschool and CSPP program leaders
- ✓ County office staff and interagency partners supporting young children ages three to five

What You'll Learn

- ✓ How eligibility, enrollment, and service delivery requirements impact inclusive placement in CSPP settings
- ✓ Strategies for addressing common licensing and operational barriers to inclusion through collaborative planning
- ✓ Practical approaches for supporting LRE decision-making and strengthening LEA–community preschool partnerships
