CREATING INCLUSIVE LEARNING OPPORTUNITIES THROUGH LOCAL EDUCATIONAL AGENCY (LEA) SPECIAL EDUCATION AND CALIFORNIA STATE PRESCHOOL PROGRAM (CSPP) PARTNERSHIPS

Strengthen partnerships between special education and CSPP at LEAs, to expand inclusive learning opportunities for young children with disabilities. This no-cost, virtual training explores CSPP eligibility and enrollment requirements, inclusive preschool service delivery models, funding considerations, and strategies for addressing common licensing barriers. Participants will gain practical tools and resources to support collaboration, strengthen inclusive practices, and increase access to high-quality early learning environments.

Who Should Attend

- Special education and early childhood education administrators
- LEA-based CSPP directors and program staff
- ECSE teachers and service providers
- Other professionals involved in developing and supporting inclusive preschool programs

What You'll Learn

- CSPP eligibility and inclusive placement: Understand enrollment requirements, rightful presence, and least restrictive environment (LRE) considerations to support inclusive preschool opportunities for children with disabilities.
- Collaborative service delivery and funding: Explore inclusive CSPP and early childhood special education (ECSE) models, staff roles and responsibilities, and funding resources to support program planning and implementation.
- Addressing barriers to inclusion: Identify common CSPP licensing challenges and practical strategies to strengthen partnerships and expand inclusive learning opportunities.
